Surplus land involved in court litigation

2768. SHRI NAGENDRA NATH OJHA: Will the Minister of RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the State-wise areas of land declared surplus under land ceiling laws involved in court litigation as on 1st April, 1998; and

(b) the guidelines to the States for speedy disposal of cases pending in the courts so that surplus land is distributed among the beneficiaries?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI BABAGOUDA PATIL): (a) A statement showing State-wise areas of land declared surplus and involved in litigation as on 1st April, 1998, is enclosed as statement (see below).

(b) The progress relating to speedy disposal of cases pending in the courts has been reviewed at various fora including recently concluded Revenue Minister's Conference held on 17th Sept., 1998. The States, where pendency of litigation cases is higher have been advised to set up Land Tribunal under Article 323 B of the Constitution of India. The States have also been advised to request respective Hon'ble High courts to set up Special Benches for quick disposal of ceiling cases. The states were also impressed upon to activate their administrative machinaries for speedy disposal of cases which are pending in the revenue courts.

Utilisation of Funds Uudner EAS

2769. SHRI NAGENDRA NATH OJHA: Will the Minister of RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that the under utilisation of funds for Employment Assurance Scheme frustrates aims and objectives of the scheme;

(b) what new steps have been taken up by Government to ensure the full utilisation of funds available with the States within a year under EAS; and

(c) the figure of expenditure in percentage to total available funds State-wise, under employment Assurance Scheme, in the 1998 till date?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI BABA GOUDA PATIL) (a) and (b) Employment assurance scheme is a demand driven programme. As such, there is neither earmarking of funds nor physical/financial targets under this scheme, Like-wise, the concept of utilisation of funds within a financial year does not apply to this Programme, Districts can claim further instalments at any time after utilising 50% of the available funds.

(c) A statement showing the details of the total funds available and spent by the States during the year 1998-99 is laid on the Table of the House
